

WHAT IS A HAWK SIGNAL?

A HAWK (High-Intensity Activated crossWalk) signal is a signal-beacon designed to help pedestrians safely cross busy streets.

The signal works like other push-button activated traffic signals by stopping traffic with a red signal, allowing pedestrians to cross with a WALK  signal.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS

Brought to you by:

For more information, visit www.gateway85.com

